SUGGESTIONS ON SODA.

A small pinch of baking soda thrown into the water in which you are boiling green vegetables will keep them fresh, green color. The color will be improved by keeping the lid partly open.

A small pinch of baking soda added to a glass of lime water will produce an effervescent and make a most agreeable drink.

There is nothing better than an application of baking powder to a burn. If you have vaseline or sweet oil at hand, mix the soda freely with either of these and apply to the burn or the scald.

If the oils are not within quick reach use water. Renew frequently. Blind in wadding, if possible, as this keeps the air from the injured part; but old linen is "second best."

For the sting of an insect the same remedy will be found excellent.

For sour stomach or biliousness, or indeed, any phase of indigestion, frequent doses of cold water into which has been stirred a little baking soda, will be found beneficial.

For a child just a pinch of soda in the water will suffice, for an adult 1-4 to 1-2 teaspoonful may be used.

The curative principle in this is that the alkaline in the soda neutralizes the acid in the stomach.

The same remedy will bring speed; relief in bladder troubles.

If feverish, nothing will cool one so well as a tepid bath into which has been thrown a small quantity of soda.

A half teaspoonful to a quart of water should be sufficient.

People who cannot use alcohol will find the soda and water bath a pleasant substitute.

For a heated head or a hot day headache, nothing can be more refreshing than a cool cloth on the forehead, wrung out of water into which a small quantity of soda has been stirred.

For washing baby's bottles, or in fact, any bottles, nothing can excel soda and water.

Use small shot and be generous with the soda, and the bottles will sparkle. Soda cuts the grease and makes the cleaning of glassware easy and satisfying.

For oily hair a shampoo of this soda and water mixture will be found very cleansing.

Girls who want to keep their hair dark, however, should beware of same, as its frequent use gives the hair a golden reddish tinge.

Pens upon which the ink has thickened and hardened can be made as good as new by washing in strong soda water.

Mr. W. T. Henderson, of Lynne, was in town Friday to meet his mother, who had been on a visit to her son, Dr. Henderson at Port Tampa city. Mr. Henderson paid us a fraternal visit and left a subscription of Uncle Sam's for the continuation of Marion county's favorite paper for another fiscal year. He says that the citizens across the river, who have orange groves, are feeling quite uneasy over the unsettled condition of the weather as the trees are now in bloom and a slight cold is liable to kill the coming crop and perhaps injure the trees.

Mr. Shephard Watson, of New York, whose name is now known both north and south has arrived in Ocala, and will conduct a mill and factory sale at the Variety store beginning Friday, February 2nd. Mr. Watson is quite successful with these sales and wherever he conducts them once is sure to return a second time. The one that he will conduct for the Variety store he has determined shall be his best and it will give the people of this town and county a rare opportunity to purchase these mill and factory goods almost at their own price. The Variety store should be crowded during the ten days of this sale.

Charles Quintard Gray.

The many relatives and friends of Quintard Gray of Nashville and this section of the state will be shocked to learn of his death in Dallas, Tex. The sad intelligence was received in Nashville Sunday morning, January the fourteenth. Mr. Gray had only been ill a few days, and prior to Sunday the last advice from his bedside were received Thursday. It was learned then that a case of typhoid fever had developed into typhoid pneumonia. No news was taken to mean goods news, however, and the announcement of his death Sunday came as a crushing blow.

Charles Quintard Gray, named for the late and beloved Bishop Charles Quintard, was well known in Nashville, having many relatives and friends here and having been a frequent visitor to this city. He was the oldest son of Rev. Charles M. Gray and a nephew of Bishop William Crane Gray, Bishop of Florida. He was born at Cleveland, Tenn., 23 years ago, the home town of his mother, who was a Miss Polk, and the remains will be taken there for interment in the family burial ground, the funeral arrangements to be announced later. Many Nashville people will go down to Bolivar to attend the last sad rites.

Although the deceased has been in business in Dallas, Tex., for several years, and his family have been living in Florida since about 1892, he was well known in many towns in Tennessee, his father having been rector of Episcopal churches in Franklin, Tenn., and Cleveland. The deceased obtained his preparatory education at Wall & Mooney's school at Franklin, and entered Sewanee in 1895. He soon took front rank in every department of the college life, and was always a leader. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, a member of the exclusive junior and senior organizations, and was honored with a protectorship during his last year at college. He took an A. B. degree in 1899 and a Master's degree in 1900. In 1897, 1898, and 1899 he played left half-back on the Sewanee Eleven. He was voted the most popular man on the mountain, a rare distinction to a Sewanee student.

After leaving college the deceased taught at Schoep's School in Dallas, and then accepted a position with the Hartford Insurance Company. His advancement in that line of business was remarkable, and at the time of his death was General State Agent of the London & Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company.

Quintard Gray was known to all as a man of noble nature and impulses, unselfish, honest, courteous, loyal to friend and trust, a devoted son and brother, faithful in the discharge of duty. He was a social favorite, popular with both sexes alike, was a clever conversationalist, a talented musician and a prince of good fellows. He was unmarried. The news of his death has been received with sorrow in Nashville. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. John Polk of this city, and a first cousin of Mr. Joseph A. Gray. One of his best friends was Mr. Luke Lea, the well-known Nashville lawyer.

News of the Death Heard at Old Home

Bolivar, Tenn., Jan. 15.—News has been received here of the death of Quintard Gray, son of Rev. and Mrs. Chas. M. Gray, which occurred in Dallas, Tex. The remains will be interred in Polk Cemetery here on Thursday next. Deceased was a young man with a bright future. He was a grandson of Col. Horace M. Polk, who represented Hardeman County in the Legislature many years ago. Rev. Charles Gray had charge of Episcopal churches in Cleveland and Franklin, this state, is now living in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Both families were at one time residents of Bolivar, and have connections in Memphis and Nashville.—Nashville (Tenn.) Banner.

Sick Headache.

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach, that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be warded off, or greatly lessened in severity, by taking a dose of these tablets as soon as the first symptom of an attack appears. Sold by all druggists.

A Candidate for Governor.

The Fort Pierce News prints a column article advocating Hon. W. J. Tucker, of that city, for Governor of Florida.

As this distinguished gentleman resided for a long time in Ocala and has a number of friends in this city and throughout the county, we reprint from the News the following biographical sketch of Mr. Tucker's life:

W. J. Tucker was born in 1840 in Newnansville, Alachua county. He was reared in Lake City, Columbia county, where his father is buried. The latter, Capt. John E. Tucker, who fought in the U. S. Mounted cavalry in 1835, owned the first store in Lake City. At that time it was called Fort Lancaster, but was afterward changed to Alligator, and then to Lake City in 1859. Here it was that Capt. Tucker enjoyed the golden days of youth and obtained the best education that was available in those pioneer days. At sixteen, in 1856, he was mustered into the state service. For three years he was one of the U. S. Mounted Volunteers and as a soldier boy he camped on the shores of the beautiful Indian river, which was to be his home in after years.

In 1862 he entered the civil war as a member of the Florida cavalry and served until '65 seeing much active service. His only brother who was in the Second Florida Regiment, was killed in the battle of Seven Pines, at Richmond, Va., in May, 1862.

On December 19, 1861, Capt. Tucker was married to Miss Sarah Sistrunk, whose father was a planter and a prominent man in Marion county. She has three nephews in Ocala now, who are among the leading citizens there, one a prominent lawyer and a member of the legislature, another Clerk of the circuit court and the other Deputy Clerk. The union was blessed with three children, two daughters and a son. The oldest daughter married A. R. Anthony, of New York, who owns large coal mines in Wilkesbarre, Pa., and copper and zinc mines in Missouri. The youngest daughter married Judge Tye, a prominent lawyer in Williamsburg, Ky. His son is a rising young business man and planter here, a member of the council and a popular favorite.

A New Magazine For Gainesville.

On March the first, Mr. C. C. Thomas, a prominent lawyer of Gainesville, will begin the publication of a monthly magazine, which will be known as the Royal Palm Magazine. It will be a literary periodical of over 100 pages, containing five sections of high class reading matter. The editorial department will be devoted to an open, frank and pointed discussion of current events, while the educational and social departments will be devoted to matters pertaining to the social and educational life of the state, making upon the whole a magazine which will be entertaining and pleasing to the people of Florida.

The Ocala Banner wishes Mr. Thomas much success in his new undertaking.

The missionary institute of the Methodist church for the Orlando district has been meeting in Lakeland during last week. Among other interesting talks at the session was that of Miss Ellie Tydings, Florida Missionary to Mexico, who told in an interesting way of her life and work among the Mexicans.

WATERMELONS

Good Money in Growing Large Watermelons.

I have been planting each year for several years, from 70 to 100 acres in Eden variety of Watermelons, and have made good money every year. I secured good Eden seed to begin with and have improved them each year, by selecting my seed from only large and well shaped melons. I have them dried in the shade, which will when properly planted always come up as they are sound and full. I have 1500 lbs., of choice seed to offer at 50c per lb. When you send your order for seed and wish me to do so, I will instruct you how to prepare, fertilize and cultivate. Let your order come in at once. I sold the same kind of seed over S. C. Ga., and Fla., last year which gave perfect satisfaction.
